

I like to travel by auto around the U.S.. I find it very helpful to have a radio like XM to listen to as I travel. I don't know what stations to listen to for weather or traffic in cities different than my own. I find it difficult to search the radio stations while driving in a city and pay attention to the traffic around me as I should. I believe XM is providing a valuable service.